Chapter 1 by Jordyn Chase

Once upon a time, it was a halloween night. You can here the sound of kids screaming, and dogs barking. Little did anyone the house upon the hill was haunted. Teenages we dared to go there 2 years ago and never came back. Now this year, people want to go there and prove that its not scary. Once they arrived at the haunted house, past the gates, its all dark and broken down. When they were brave enough to go inside you can here the door creek and then they have seen a white thing go across them. One ran out saying "its haunted im out" and the others stayed. They walk around some more and the pictures on the wall starts shaking and then fall. Then the hole sucked us in. I dont know how to get out or how it happened there was nothing there.

One month later..... Cops came to go find them. They couldnt find them. They also got sucked into the hole and more people start to keep sucked into the hole too. The other cops came and but tape around the house and thats the end of the house. People now never to go into that house and next time someone would go into the house like in 3 or 4 years thats the end of them.
